

Kuehne employees and spouses celebrated the holidays in style at the Westminster Hotel in Livingston, New Jersey. Employees were treated to a wonderful experience, which included a warm reception, followed by dinner and dancing.

The festivities culminated in a Santa brunch Sunday morning, with of course, a visit from Santa!

Many thanks go out to Ronda Kuehne and Violet Herring for planning such an exquisite event.

Take a look below at all the smiles and fun!!

