

Message from Kuehne Company Regarding Possible Railroad Strike

December 2, 2022

With the White House signing legislation into law preventing the national rail strike, Kuehne expects no interruption in our rail services. We appreciate our leaders working together to prevent what could have significantly impacted the delivery of our products. Your continued trust is appreciated and we thank you for your business.

Sincerely,

Zach Kuehne
President

Dave Zilberfarb
Director of Sales and Marketing